

The Vallejo—Benicia Branch of the American Association of University Women
P r e s e n t s

the Dances of Isadora Duncan
“A Revolution in Aesthetics”

Solo Dancer,
Lois Flood

With poet,
Marjorie Lynne Wagner

2:00 pm — Saturday, February 6, 2016

Vallejo Naval and Historical Museum

734 Marin Street, Vallejo, California

Come join renowned dancer Lois Flood for an unforgettable performance, in costume of flowing silk, inspired by the classical aesthetic dance movement of legendary pioneer Isadora Duncan, Mother of Modern Dance. Influenced by Greek myth and culture and set to classical music, these dances are lively and expressive. The Dance Legacy of Isadora is culturally enriching and entertaining. All ages will enjoy these exquisite, historical dances from the repertory of an artist who revolutionized dance.

Marjorie Lynn Wagner, poet-artist, will read quotes by Isadora Duncan, and there will be questions answered at the end of the program.

Come, revel in the experience!

“To awaken human emotion is the highest level of art” —Isadora Duncan