*“the Dances of Isadora Duncan —
A Revolution in Aesthetics”*

*Solo Dancer,
Lois Flood*

*With poet,
Marjorie Lynne Wagner*

Tuesday, November 24, 2015, 7—9:00 pm

Lois Flood will perform dances lyrical and dramatic, inspired by the classical aesthetic dance movement of Isadora Duncan. The dances are lively and expressive. A stunning selection of classical music expresses a potpourri of dance styles, lyrical to the revolutionary. Greek myths are the theme of many dances. A guest narrator will read quotes by Isadora Duncan. The Dance Legacy of Isadora is culturally enriching and entertaining. all ages will enjoy these exquisite, historical dances from the repertory of Isadora Duncan. Costumes are designed of flowing silk.

“To awaken human emotion is the highest level of art” — Isadora Duncan
